

Child of Darkness

Can you imagine what happens to the soul of a person who has to see and has to go through all those things that happen when they are the victim of ritual abuse-torture?

You feel helpless, alone, without any hope left. There is nothing to hold onto. The inner core is captured in fear all by itself. I think my drawing speaks for itself and does not need many words.

Karen, a German survivor of RAT

Donated February 21, 2004