

The Shadow Man

He told me he was born in Canada's mid-west and raised in a RAT pedophilic family that used him in the production of child pornography. As a child sex slave he was forced in front of the cameras in a parked moving van that had been temporarily re-fitted as a "film" location. As an adolescent he worked on the streets because as his body grew and developed his family could no longer use him for pedophilic exploitation.

This drawing is one of many he wanted me to circulate to inform people that pedophiles such as he are created. Arrested, imprisoned, and since discharge from a psychiatric institution he has moved or been forced to move between towns, cities, and provinces. My last knowledge of his whereabouts was that he was in Atlantic Canada ...
